

Comic Relief takes place on Friday, 17 March 2023.

We would like to invite all children to

Wear something funky, fabulous and outrageous on your head – from your favourite hat to your most imaginative homemade creation - let your imagination run wild!

We would like to ask children to make a donation of £1 towards Comic Relief if they decide to take part (please look out for the collection pots in the playground at the start of the day).

