Knowledge Organiser: Computing: Information Technology

Overview

A simulation is computer software that lets you 'pretend' to try out something that would be too dangerous, difficult or expensive to try in real life.

Examples

CONSTRUCT A BRIDGE

Marbleous Marvel Coaster

My Bedtime — Play

Rocket BUILDER

Welcome to Animal Crossing Pocket Camp ©Nintendo

Why are simulations used in real life?

Too expensive

Too Difficult

HARD

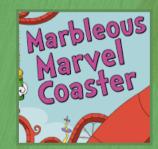

DANGER

Too Dangerous

Impossible!

---

simulation   software   test   expensive   dangerous   difficult