

Author of the Week

1 May 2023

Rosalind Spark

Rosalind Spark lives in south London and fell in love with stories when she was very small. She constantly pestered her dad to make up sequels to her favourite fairy tales.

The King's Runaway Crown feel-good story to celebrate King Charles' coronation that captures excitement and joy, along with a dash of adventure provided by Colin the naughty Jack Russell – inspired by the royal family's own love of dogs!

