

We are confident.
We are inquisitive.
We are scientists.

Science Vocabulary of the Week

deciduous

Deciduous means "temporary" or "tending to fall off."

When talking about plants this means that the plant loses its leaves, usually in autumn. The leaves will then grow again in spring.

