

We are confident.
We are inquisitive.
We are scientists.

Science Vocabulary

of the Week

winter

In the UK, we have four seasons: spring, summer, autumn and winter. Each season lasts about three months and has different weather.

Winter is the coldest season with the shortest days. It can be stormy with lots of rain and wind. There may be snow and ice. You will need a coat, hat, scarf and gloves to keep you warm.