

We are confident.
We are inquisitive.
We are scientists.

Science Vocabulary of the Month

compare

In science compare means to look at two or more objects, ideas, people, etc. and see how they are similar and how they are different.

This might mean looking at photographs, watching videos or examining actual objects.