

We are confident.
We are inquisitive.
We are scientists.

Science Vocabulary of the Month

Autumn

In the UK, we have four seasons: spring, summer, autumn and winter. Each season lasts about three months and has different weather.

In Autumn the days get shorter and cooler. There is usually more wind and rain. You'll need to start wearing your coat more and play inside. There may be more frost on the ground in the mornings.