

We are confident.
We are inquisitive.
We are scientists.

Science Vocabulary of the Month

Spring

In the UK, we have four seasons: spring, summer, autumn and winter. Each season lasts about three months and has different weather.

In Spring the days start to get warmer. Plants grow and start to flower. You can play outside for longer because it gets dark later. There are more warm, dry days so you might go outside more often.