

We are confident.
We are inquisitive.
We are scientists.

Science Vocabulary of the Month

medicine

Medicine is the science of keeping people healthy and healing those who are sick. Specially trained people called doctors or physicians practise medicine.

Medicine is also the name for a drug or other chemical substance that can be used to treat a disease, injury or pain. Medicines could be tablets, syrup, lotions, creams, gels, injections and more.